

The Luther Gulick Camps,
172 Cushing Street,
Providence, R. I.,
November 16, 1933.

Greetings Wohelo:

Registrations have been coming in thick and fast ever since the first of September. It hardly seems possible, but there are more girls registered now than were registered on the first of May last year. This is due, to a great extent, to the new unit organization in Sebago Wohelo. Everyone seems to be enthusiastic about the plan. Little Wohelo is also going through a few important changes, not in organization, but in the grounds. The tennis courts have been entirely rebuilt and placed back nearer the Craft House. They are now side by side and their new location allows a great deal more room in front of the bungalow. The general playground is almost double the old size.

You will find the camp addresses in the back of this news letter. They are a little earlier than usual so don't lose them before Christmas cards go out.

The following index may help you out in finding just the news you want to read:

1933 Addresses at the end

Do let us hear more about you for the next news letter.

SEBAGO WOHELO NEWS

We've already told you all about ourselves and our farm, so we'll only mention that since last we wrote we've acquired three baby goats and three new Nanny goats. They came all the way down from Maine in a sedan, and most of the upholstery is still uneaten, though we're frank to admit that we wouldn't have loaned our car for the journey. Ralph, the school chauffeur, brought them down from Oxford, and his wife and daughter rode along too, getting occasional shy nibbles from the occupants of the back seat.

Halsey drove to Maine last Sunday, but returned, fortunately, goatless. He says that the canoes look simply great in their new paint, and that the Little Camp tennis courts are bee-ootiful. He brought back with him the loveliest new shiny badge, marked "Captain, South Casco, Maine, Fire Department". Captain Gulick of the Hook and Ladder! And all because of the new portable fire fighting pump bought with the proceeds of the circus.

Bunkie is boarding this year at the Kent Place School in Summit, New Jersey. She goes home every week-end which makes it awfully nice for her but she says that the work this year is hard and she has to study a lot. She is registered for next summer and wants to be in the Sailing Unit but Harriet Dana and Peggy Scott beat her to it and we don't see how we can have more than two Trusted Girls in that unit.

Peggy Austin rode down from camp with Ted Ferrine, Jackie and Helen Bennett. Peggy says that they had a nice trip and that the Bennetts were wonderful to them and took them to a play that night.

Rice Barrett went to Martha's Vineyard after camp where she did a lot of sailing and fishing.

Ollie Faust is a Freshman at Swarthmore College, Swarthmore Pa. She went out to the World's Fair with her family after camp closed and stayed at the Fair for six days. On the way home they stopped at Niagara Falls. On the trip Ollie met a Swarthmore graduate who turned out to have been Dottie Gulick's roommate at Swarthmore. Ollie went to a Phi Kappa Psi table party with Ben Moore, Minnie Moore's brother. Ben is a Senior there.

Cecil Hodgman writes that she is taking a school census in the slum district of Stamford and it's quite a job. She visited Bob and Beebe in Bedford awhile ago.

Jane Major is moving in January to Rosalie Road, Newton Centre, Mass. The Majors are building a new house there and it won't be finished until January.

Betsy Sylvester is at Cushing Academy, Ashburnham, Mass. this winter. Jane Bigelow's sister, who used to be at camp, is there too.

Betsy Nevitt is living at the French House at Oberlin but she isn't taking any French! They speak French in the dining-room and Betsy says that they've started the Wohelo system of telling jokes on someone at every dinner. If you don't believe that it's difficult to tell your favorite joke in French, try it.

Libby Smith is spending the winter with her grandmother in Albany and going to the Girls' Academy there. She's president of the Senior Council. Libby decided last summer that too many of the Albany girls came from St. Agnes and that it was too much to expect one person to uphold the Girls' Academy against them so this year she's bringing Mary Virginia Ashby from the Academy to camp with her. She says that she's going to bring a whole delegation to prove her points about the Academy.

Ann McIntosh and some of her friends are taking Bridge lessons in Auburn.

Peggy Dowst sailed on October 14th on the S.S. Minnetonka. She is going to spend the winter in Italy at Miss Edith May's school there and it all sounds so wonderful that we're afraid that she'll want to stay over there instead of coming back.

Nono Bancroft's brother, Dennison, is going to help with the sailing at camp next summer. He has done a great deal of sailing, has spent several summers in cruising and seems to us to be an ideal man for the job. Dennison drove down from Boston last Sunday to talk to us about it and was going to bring Nono with him but she had a chance to sit in the front row to hear Kreisler and naturally didn't give it up. Nono is registered for the Sailing Unit.

Hector is back at the Fessenden School this winter. He has been leading the boys in singing every day - and we wish you could have heard them sing the hymns at Prayers to see what an improvement he's made already. They can only choose the most joyful hymns now because the boys sing so loud and so joyfully.

Ebits Benson is going to the May School in Boston this winter.

Barbara Haight is registered for the Arts and Crafts Unit.

Barky has been down to see us once and then dropped by after the Brown-Princeton game but as we weren't there he left a note on a tree to tell us he'd been there. If that isn't rural, we don't know what is. He has a beautiful new Ford roadster which he got before he left Maine and which is only second in beauty to our own Ford.

Pat Parkhurst is staying at "Uncle Tal's" at 59 Mt. Vernon St., Boston, from Monday to Friday every week. She goes to Beaver Country Day School and spends the week-ends with her family at Groton. Pat is registered for next summer at camp.

Boo-bee and Buddy Vondermuhll are both registered for the Sailing Unit. We saw Mr. Vondermuhll at the Brown-Princeton game here in Providence but only for a minute. We think he's the most loyal alumnus that Princeton has. Anyway he has an awfully good team to root for this year.

Jane Hamilton is president of her class at Chatham Hall, Chatham, Virginia. She wants to be in the Sailing Unit, too, but there seem to be too many Trusted Girls who do. She's registered, anyway.

Popsy Lund is registered for the Dancing Unit.

Jean Cushing is going to be a Rider next summer. She is bringing a friend from Chestnut Hill to camp with her - Mary E. Macomber. Mary is to be a Sailor.

Virginia Schick, Caroline Merritt, and Eleanor Stoddard are registered for the Crafts Unit.

Charlotte Robinson, Helen Jaynes, Maryl Riter, C.C., and Marie Christopher are to be Sailors.

Mary Frances Godfrey, June Robinson and Betty Dawson are to be Riders.

Martha Patterson, Mul Boyden, Minnie Moore, and Helen Crossley are registered for Sebago Wohelo, but didn't tell us which unit they wanted to be in.

Dottie Le Butt went to Chicago to the World's Fair with her Mother after camp closed.

Mother Merrill had dinner with Margaret Swanton and her family the other night in Washington.

Gertrude Plaisted is with us in Providence - though she seems to spend all of her weekends in Boston. She lives at the Wheeler School and commutes across the street to our office.

LITTLE WOHELO NEWS

Bob and Beebe, Mildred, Baba, and Mariella stopped in to see the Godfreys on the way home from camp, and had lunch with them. They also had lunch with the McBees the next day.

Bob's school has more pupils in it than it had last year - cheers for the headmaster - and it is gradually filling up with Wohelocites, for in addition to Mildred, Babe, Don Waterman and Gus Van Cortlandt, it now has Ted Perrine. Ted has charge of the girls' athletics. Every day is camp reunion day in Bedford.

Margaret Dorkey is registered already for next summer.

Helen Eveleth is the head of the Belvidere School, in Lowell, Mass. This is the lower school of Rogers Hall. Jean McGay's mother is director of Rogers Hall.

Billie Godfrey is one of the two girls in her Scout troop who has earned the Junior Red Cross Life Saving Certificate. Billie is registered for the riding unit in Sebago Wohelo next summer.

Carol Christopher is registered for the boating unit in Sebago Wohelo next summer.

Ann Slade had supper with us the other night out at Columbine Hill. She is secretary to Dr. Bradford, the minister of the Central Congregational Church here in Providence.

Patsy Brown has been visiting her friends since camp closed. She and her Mother spend September at Winter Harbor. In October she went to Melrose, and was there when she wrote us. She's had an offer of a job travelling all over New England coaching "local talent" shows.

Helen Maxcy is at the Wheelock School in Boston this winter.

June Robinson is registered for the Riding Unit in Sebago Wohelo next summer. The other Little Woheloites who are registered for Big Camp next summer are C. Merritt (Arts and Crafts), Maryl Riter (Sailors), Betty Dawson (Riders), Eleanor Stoddard (Arts and Crafts), and Helen Crossley, who hasn't decided yet which unit she wants to register for.

Baba Boyden and Eleanore Strohm are registered for next summer, and so is Janet Edgar Meade, of Metuchen, N. J. Janet heard of camp through C. L. Holman's family.

Among the other Little Woheloites registered for next summer are Emily Platt, Margaret Dorkey, Sibby McBee, Maggie Booker, Eleanor Kimmey, Joan Foster, and Evelyn Austin.

We've already said this in the Big Camp news, but it really belongs here - Jackie and Ted drove Helen Bennett and Shrimp Austin down after camp, and they all report that the Bennetts were wonderful to them in Hartford. They even took them to a play that night.

TINY WOHELO NEWS

Two very important registrations for Tiny Wohelo to date. They are Mariella Boyden and her girl friend, Katherine Merrill Gulick.

CAMP TIMANOUS NEWS

Much the most important Timanous news of the fall is that the Skipper and Lee have a young son, Richard Fowler Boyden, born October 22nd. Lee says that she hardly needs to mention that he has red hair. He is a big baby, and looks like the Skipper, and he's registered for Timanous next summer. Due to the excitement of it all we can't get much in the way of details out of the Skipper, but as soon as we know more about Richard, we'll let you know. We feel sure that they named him Richard because of the two Richards in Timanous last summer.

The Colonel has moved from Edgewood, R. I., to R. F. D. 2, Laconia, N. H., where his family have bought a farm. We can't think of any nicer place to grow up than on a farm.

Dick and Jack Ragle are registered for Timanous next summer.

Frank Fleischman is coming back next summer. His father sent us some very good pictures he took at camp, one of the boys taking sun baths on the dock, and one of a boy diving.

Winslow Rust is back at the Fessenden School this winter. We saw him on one of our trips up there. He is coming back to camp next summer.

Bill McBee is registered for next summer too.

Tommy Findley and Gus Van Cortlandt stayed for two weeks after camp closed at the girls' camp. They, with Halsey and Charlotte Robinson, put up a new cabin which they appropriately named "The Bent Nail", down by Boulders Dock. It is certainly one of the nicest cabins in camp. Gus and Tommy are trying to reserve it for themselves, but we think we can get permission to put girls in it during the camp season.

Don Waterman is teaching at the Bedford-Rippowam School, in Bedford, New York.
